 - b. The CACIB was awarded to a dog that was entered in a wrong class which prevents it from being eligible for this award (see Dogs Australia Regulations Part 5 – Show Classes).
 - c. The CACIB was awarded to a dog that fulfils, on the day of the show, the requirements (in terms of number of CACIB earned and necessary time required) for the title of C.I.B. This means for breeds not subject to a working test, See Dogs Australia Regulations Part 5 – Show
 - d. The CACIB awarded was cancelled for any other reason.
